We are constantly on a stretch, if not on a strain, to devise new methods, new plans, new organizations to advance the Church and secure enlargement and efficiency for the gospel. This trend of the day has a tendency to lose sight of the man or sink the man in the plan or organization. God's plan is to make much of the man, far more of him than of anything else. Men are God's method. The Church is looking for better methods; God is looking for better men. 2018 Reprint of Eight Volumes in One Edition. Contains the following works: The Necessity of Prayer -- The Essentials of Prayer -- The Possibilities of Prayer -- The Reality of Prayer -- Purpose in Prayer -- The Weapon of Prayer -- Power Through Prayer -- Prayer and Praying Men. Trained as a lawyer, but called to ministry, Bounds served as an Army chaplain during the Civil War. As far as prayer is concerned, Bounds practiced what he preached. His personal prayer regimen called him to prayer for three hours every morning. Bounds did not consider his time in prayer as idle time, but a time that was effective in changing the world through the power and grace of God. Read Bounds' "Power Through Prayer" to enrich your understanding of God's work in the world. The eight works included in this collection were written particularly to convict, exhort, and encourage those who preach God's word that the secret of successful ministry is prayer and communion with the Lord. All books by this author begin with one or more inspiring quotations from the writings of others who have realized the importance of prayer and its power to change the world. The simple clarion call to "Pray! Pray! Pray!" rings throughout all of Bounds' work. If heaven is truly a paradise where God dwells, we should desire it more than anything on this frail, fleeting earth. The trials and difficulties of life should each be seen in light of the coming glory of heaven. Unfortunately, we rarely view things from this perspective. Our schedules are filled with the present, allowing no time for contemplating or desiring eternity. Our incorrect perspective makes us spend our time on the least important things while ignoring those things that are most crucial. Take a break from the present and let E. M. Bounds help you discover A Place Called Heaven.

Examining virtually all the Scriptures that pertain to heaven, Bounds masterfully explains the nature of heaven and our purpose in it. Get a taste of heaven here on earth, learn a true Christian attitude toward eternity, and discover a purer, truer life. Collected here in this 8-in-1 omnibus edition are all of E. M. Bounds' powerful books. No one else wrote with such power and authority on prayer. These classic books continue to inspire and instruct us on all aspects of prayer and its uses in everyday Christian life. "Prayer has to do with the entire man. Prayer takes in man in his whole being, mind, soul and body. It takes the whole man to pray, and prayer affects the entire man in its gracious results. As the whole nature of man enters into prayer, so also all that belongs to man is the beneficiary of prayer. All of man receives benefits in prayer. The whole man must be given to God in praying. The largest results in praying come to him who gives himself, all of himself, all that belongs to himself, to God. This is the secret of full consecration, and this is a condition of successful praying, and the sort of praying which brings the largest fruits." -E. M. Bounds

In the Reality of Prayer, Edward McKendree Bounds focuses on the role of the Holy Trinity in prayer. He discusses how each side of the Trinity fits into his theology of salvation through devotional prayer and discusses particular approaches towards praying to Jesus and the Holy Ghost. "We do more of everything else than of praying." In the Church today, there is a growing unspoken belief that God is silent, that efforts to communicate with him are contrived, naive and—perhaps most of all—futile. In this collection of his early books, E. M. Bounds speaks to the enduring power of prayer—as the pathway to personal connection with God, as the means to experience abundance, and as the very instrument that is capable of changing the world. Edward McKendree Bounds (1835-1913) was an American author, attorney, Civil War army chaplain and Methodist preacher. Of his 11 published books, nine of them focused on prayer — an act that he believed was central to the heart of a believer, and therefore one that should be consistently learned and practiced. Bounds devoted countless hours to personal prayer, and these books are the overflow of his experience, heart and faithfulness. The Complete Works of E. M. Bounds on Prayer Volume I includes Power Through Prayer, Purpose in Prayer, Prayer and Praying Men, and The Possibilities of Prayer. Through Bounds' passion and expertise, the reader will discover: How prayer can transform people and the world The purpose of individual, private prayer The centrality of prayer to spiritual health How God's promises are fulfilled through prayer In these pages, readers will encounter a sincere and unwavering belief that anything is possible through prayer and an infectious devotion to prayer as the means to true and lasting transformation. The E.M. Bounds Collection contains Power Through Prayer, Prayer and Praying Men, Purpose in Prayer, The Essentials of Prayer, The Necessity of Prayer, The Possibilities of Prayer, and The Reality of Prayer, The Weapon of Prayer. Edward McKendree Bounds was known for his theological works emphasizing the active role of prayer in salvation. This collection includes his most famous pieces. In The Necessity of Prayer, Edward Bounds, a 20th century pastor and lawyer, suggests that prayer is an essential part of the Christian believer's life. He writes, "the Christian soldier, if he fight to win, must pray much." Bounds' book, however, is not simply a list of prayers for one to work through, but also a discourse on the very nature of prayer. He connects the nature of prayer to other features of the Christian life, such as faith, reverence, patience, hope, character, conduct, and faithfulness. Bounds' passion for prayer--which compelled him to write nine books on the topic--shines through in this work, and cannot but help motivate those who read it to also see the necessity of prayer. Perfect for individual study, Bounds' book is sure to change the way one prays. -Tim Perrine, CCEL Staff Writer

The contents of this message upon prayer should be read alike by preacher and teacher, evangelist and intercessor. Its pages contain an appeal to every "worker together with Christ," and stimulate the desire for prayer in the varied relationships of Christian life. The appeal deserves a wide circulation amongst members of Prayer Circles and Prayer Unions, and, indeed, amongst all who are looking for a revival of true religion in our land, and an exodus of ambassadors for Christ to heathen and Moslem populations. -- Albert A. Head. "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name" Matthew 6:9 Some of the most incredible, hard-hitting, and revealing words on prayer came from the pen of E.M. Bounds. Of the 11 books he wrote, 9 are centered on this topic. For over a century, pastors, Christians, and teachers have been using his words for guidance and inspiration for their own communication with God. They have all become sought-after classics to this day. Who better to draw from on the subject than a man who brought revival to his region through prayer meetings? God will forever hear and answer prayer. He is the same yesterday, to-day and forever, ever blessed, ever to be adored. Amen. He changes not. As He has always answered prayer, so will He ever continue to do so." E. M. Bounds My first book by Edward M. Bounds, Power for Prayer was found at a garage sale. I was drawn to it. I have been in the ministry since 1986. Many times I have been supernaturally led to a classic work of a man of God, and "Power for Prayer" was one of those works. . This led me to his other books on prayer. This devotional is a compilation of several of four of his books in daily, bite-size format. I purposefully have not edited any of his material, but left it in its original format. I read it daily, but unlike other books, I could only read smaller excerpts at a time because of the depth of his revelations. You literally have to stop and say, "Selah." I eventually sensed the call to compile a devotional in this same format, that others could simply do the same. Many readers will be not be able to stop at the current date's page, but will be compelled to keep reading. I did this on purpose, because, that's the way I read it. Read a little and meditate it. Let the words speak to your inner man. The spirit of prayer is truly caught, not just taught. I believe the spirit of prayer that was on his life are in these words. This truly is some of the richest teachings and exhortations on prayer you will ever read. Get ready! God is about speak to you about prayer, and help you to understand it. Grab a pen! I left the margins big enough so you can make notes. Even so, "Come quickly Lord Jesus." Edward McKendree Bounds (1835-1913) practiced law for three years until he was called to preach the gospel. His books on prayer have been continual best-sellers for over 100 years. He was a man who lived ever on prayer ground. He walked and talked with the Lord. Prayer was the great weapon in his arsenal, his pathway to the Throne of Grace. None who read what he has written can fail of realising that Edward McKendree Bounds talked with God, as a man talketh to his friend.. This devotional will teach you how to pray and transform your prayer life. this would make an excellent gift for any who are given to prayer, or desire to learn how to pray. "The name of E. M. Bounds is familiar to anyone who has an interest in prayer. In a world awash in books that jam the isles of bookstores everywhere, few will even begin to survive the lifetime of the authors, but that is not true of E. M. Bounds. After a century, many of his books are still in print. Their long life is a testimony to the timelessness of the prayer lessons he learned from his own deep Christian spirituality. // In view of the popularity of E. M. Bounds writings, it seems incredible that so little about him has been published. To remedy that amazing state of affairs, Lyle W. Dorsett has read every scrap of paper related to Bounds, and the family has made available for the first time a private collection of the Bounds correspondence. From that, Dorsett wrote this account of Bounds' life. Collected here in this 8-in-1 omnibus edition are all of E. M. Bounds' powerful books on prayer. No one else wrote with such power and authority on prayer. These classic books continue to inspire and instruct us on all aspects of prayer and its uses in everyday Christian life. God, acknowledges His being, exalts His power, adores His providence, secures His aid.” Based on the uncompromising, simple foundations of Scripture, E. M. Bounds left a legacy of written jewels on The Mission of the Church, Our Spiritual Walk, and Leadership, God's Way. He used terms such as: repentant, redeemed, righteous, self-denying, disciplined, consecrated, prayerful, evangelistic, holy, joyful, lovers of God, Christ Jesus, the Holy Spirit, ageless descriptions of the man, woman, and child of God. These faith-building, Spirit-inspired, never-before-published writings are now gathered together in one powerful volume in the Pure Gold Classics series. (née Purnell) Bounds. In the preface to E.M. Bounds on Prayer, published by Hendrickson Christian Classics Series over 90 years after Bounds' death, it is surmised that young Edward was named after the evangelist, William McKendree, who planted churches in western Missouri and served as the fourth bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was the fifth child, in a family of three sons and three daughters. "The more praying there is in this world, the better the world will be, the mightier the forces against evil everywhere. Prayer, in one phase of its operation, is a disinfectant and a preventive. It purifies the air; it destroys the contagion of evil. Prayer is no fitful, short-lived thing. It is no voice crying unheard and unheeded in silence. It is a voice which goes into God's ear, and it lives as long as God's ear is open to holy pleas, as long as God's heart is alive to holy things." Purpose in Prayer will awaken those who have neglected prayer, encourage those who desire help in this spiritual exercise, and give significant instruction to all who read its pages.

The story of prayer is the story of great achievements. Prayer is a wonderful power placed by Almighty God in the hands of His saints, which may be used to accomplish great purposes and to achieve unusual results. Prayer reaches to everything, takes in all things great and small which are promised by God to the children of men. The only limits to prayer are the promises of God and His ability to fulfill those promises. 'Open thy mouth wide and I will fill it.'" --E. M.
